Early one morning in the city of _____, the night after the _____ army retreated, two sisters meet. _____ asks her sister _____ if she had heard the King's new ruling. Ismene replies that she had not heard anything. However, Ismene says she knows that two sisters lost two _____. Antigone then informs her sister Ismene about King Creon's actions and rulings. Antigone says that _____ has buried their brother _____ with military honors. However, since their brother _____ fought against the King Creon, he has made a ruling that nobody can _____ for or _____ him. Antigone also tells her sister that the _____ for breaking this ruling is death by stoning. Antigone asks her sister if she is a true _____ or a _____ to her family. Antigone then asks Ismene if she will help her bury Polynices. Ismene replies to Antigone and says that she cannot help her sister bury her brother because she must _____ Creon's ruling. Furthermore, Ismene says that their family has experienced enough _____ with their father _____, and that it is not wise for two more members of the family to _____ death. Antigone replies to Ismene and tells her that she will bury her brother regardless because she wants to be loyal to her _____ and it is what the _____ would want. Furthermore, Antigone tells her sister that she wants everyone to know which sister rightfully buried Polynices. Antigone leaves the scene to go and bury her brother Polynices. The _____ enters and tells the tale of the bloody war where the two brothers killed each other in battle.
